The 2019 Budget, the first budget under the new government will be tabled in the Parliament on 2nd November 2018. The budget has a tall order to meet, balancing the people's expectations while being fiscally responsible.

The budget will focus on trickling down the country's economic growth to the people while providing proactive economic measures to manage inflation rates.

Will we see a tax reform and new taxes in the coming budget? How will the budget impact us, businesses and our country?

Join our full day seminar to get insights from our tax team along with our guest speakers on various topics concerning the country's economic outlook and taxation matters.

Get an overview of the 2019 Budget and updates on corporate tax and indirect tax presented by our tax team. Our esteemed guest speakers will also be sharing their insights on the economic outlook and analysis for 2019 and also on recent tax cases.
